

CANADIAN STUDIES ACTIVITIES

My interest in Canadian Studies is defined by my Canada-centered courses, conference papers, and publications, and by my leadership of the Kentucky Canadian Studies Roundtable and the Kentucky Canadian Studies Consortium and its multi-disciplinary Canadian Studies Online Program.

TEACHING

Kentucky Canadian Studies Consortium, Board Chair, 2001-

The Kentucky Canadian Studies Consortium is a free-standing entity created by five Morehead State University, Eastern Kentucky University, Georgetown College, University of Kentucky, and Western Kentucky University. The KCSC is responsible for planning and implementing the Canadian Embassy-supported Canadian Studies Online Program.

Canadian Studies Online Program, 2001-

The Canadian Studies Online Program (CSOP) is a multi-disciplinary Internet-based program taught by consortium faculty to consortium students. The CSOP includes the introductory course, Perspectives on Canada, and advanced courses which study Canada alone and in comparative and international perspective

These courses are offered as part of undergraduate certificate and minor program of study at Morehead State University, Eastern Kentucky University, and Western Kentucky University, as elective undergraduate courses at the University of Kentucky, and as elective graduate education courses at Morehead State University and Georgetown College.

Canadian Studies Online Program, Coordinator, 2001-

As the CSOP Coordinator, I am responsible for planning and implementing the program. I work with the distance learning staff and faculty on five campuses to schedule and work with 350 students enrolled yearly in 10 to 12 courses.

Kentucky Canadian Studies Association Web Site, 2001-

The Kentucky Canadian Studies Association (KCSA) is the umbrella organization for the Kentucky Canadian Studies Consortium, the Canadian Studies Online Program, and the Kentucky Canadian Studies Roundtable

In 2001, I created the KCSA web site, <http://www.moreheadstate.edu/kcsa>, to link the consortium together and provide information on the Canadian Studies Online Program, the K-12 "Canadian Studies in the Classroom," program, and the annual meetings of the Kentucky Canadian Studies Roundtable.

In 2004, the KCSA site was listed as an affiliate partner on the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States web site: <http://www.acsus.org>. I update the web site regularly; and in 2006, I moved the KCSA web site from the University of Kentucky to Morehead State University.

Canadian Studies Online Program (CSOP) Courses, 2001-

I have developed and taught the following CSOP courses.

IST 330: Perspectives on Canada. Coordinator and member of 6 faculty team
GOVT 303 / IST 334: Comparative Constitutional Law: United States, Canada, and Germany.
GOVT 329 / IST 329: North American Politics: United States and Canada
GOVT 368 / IST 368: Human Rights and Global Justice: U.S. and Canadian Perspectives
GOVT 399 / IST 339: Law, Politics, and Federalism: United States, Canada, and Germany

MSU International Studies Minor in Canadian Studies, 2003

In 2003, I received approval of the Canadian Studies Online Program (CSOP) at Morehead State as the International Studies Minor Canadian Studies Emphasis. The CSOP has also been recognized at Eastern Kentucky University as a Canadian Studies Minor and at Western Kentucky University as a Canadian Studies Certificate.

Canadian Parliament Internship Program, 2000-

A five-week Western Kentucky University summer program in Ottawa.

I have been the MSU Representative and Supervising Teacher since 2000.

I teach GOVT 476: Politics of Canada each Spring to prepare students who will intern the following summer.

Canadian Studies Scholarships, 2004-

I created the Morehead State University Canadian Studies Scholarship in 2004 to provide financial support for MSU students who participate in the Canadian Parliamentary Internship Program, a five week summer Ottawa program. The scholarship is funded by the MSU Office of Financial Aid and Department of Geography, Government, and History. Two students received $500 scholarships in 2004 and 4 students in 2005, 4 in 2006, and 4 in 2007 have received $1,000 scholarships.
